PEREGRINE FALCONS – 26TH ANNIVERSARY

The Peregrine Falcons have returned to 1201Third. For the past 26 years 1201Third has hosted a Peregrine Falcon nest box, provided by the Falcon Research Group, on the east side of the building on the roofline. Each spring our staff anxiously waits to see if a Falcon pair selects this spot to raise their young. Eggs are typically laid in March, with the hatching taking place 29-33 days after. To follow the Falcons' progress, please visit the live Falcon Cam at: <http://1201thirdtenants.com/falconcam.aspx>. In addition, stop by the lobby to see the replica Falcon nest complete with replica Peregrine Falcon eggs and our Falcon update as to the dates the eggs were laid. Watching the camera and seeing something interesting? Tweet us @1201Third with #1201Falcons.

POEM IN YOUR POCKET DAY

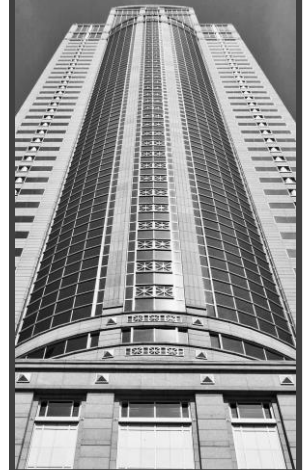

Thursday, April 18

Poem in Your Pocket Day, established in 2002 by the Office of the Mayor of New York City and then extended to all fifty United States in 2008 by the Academy of American Poets, is a day in which individuals are encouraged to print a favorite poem, and share it with friends, family, and colleagues throughout the day. To assist participating in this literary tradition, 1201Third places two jars in the lobby, each stocked with an array of poems to pick at random, read, and share throughout the day and beyond. To learn more about Poem in Your Pocket Day please visit <https://www.poets.org/national-poetry-month/poem-your-pocket-day> or
